Provided that if he belongs to category (c) or (d) he must be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India:

Provided further that if he belongs to category (d) the certificate of eligibility will be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment beyond which he can be retained in service only if he has become a citizen of India.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary, may be admitted to an examination or interview and he may also provisionally be appointed subject to the necessary certificates being given to him by the competent authority; and

(2) Unless he is already in Government service, he must produce:

- (i) a certificate of good moral character from the Principal Academic Officer of his University, College, School or the head of his educational or technical institution last attended;
- (ii) certificates of good moral character from two responsible persons, not being his relatives, who are well acquainted with him in private life and un-connected with his University, College,

School or other educational or technical institution;

(iii) a medical certificate as required by rule 10 of Fundamental Rules and rules 3 and 4 of Supplementary Rules;

(iv) a declaration to the effect that he has not more than one living wife;

(a) no person who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the service;

(v) in case of a female Government servant a declaration to the effect that she has not married a person having already a living wife;

(a) No woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the service;

Provided that the Government may if satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any person from the operation of rules in clauses (iv) and (v) above; (vi) unless he/she is already in Government service must not be less than 18 years and more than 25 years of age as on the date of his appointment:

Provided further that minimum and maximum age limits as prescribed may be relaxed in pursuance of the instructions laid down in Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs Office Memorandum No. 4/7/56-RPS., dated November 30, 1956 and of administrative instructions given in Appendix III of the Posts and Telegraphs Compilation of the Fundamental and Supplementary Rules, Volume II:

Provided further that the maximum age limit may be relaxed in the case of Scheduled Castes/Tribes candidates, displaced persons and other special categories in accordance with the orders issued by the Government of India from time to time.

 - (iv) Stenographer (senior scale).—By promotion on the basis of seniority subject to the rejection of unfit out of Stenographers (junior scale) who have served at least for three years in that capacity, failing which by direct recruitment on the basis of competitive examination.
 - (v) Stenographer (junior scale).—By direct recruitment on the basis of competitive examination.
 - (vi) Clerks.—By direct recruitment on the basis of competitive examination.
- Note*.—(1) Assistants/Accountant-cum-Storekeeper, and
(2) Guides and Clerks will be interchangeable.

8. Procedure for direct recruitment.—(a) The vacancies shall be intimated to Employment Exchanges and circulated among the different Departments of the Government.

(b) The vacancy/vacancies shall also be advertised.

(c) The selection will be made on the basis of a viva-voce test or a written test or both as may be prescribed in the circular/advertisement.

9. Probation of members of the service appointed against permanent posts.—Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies either by direct recruitment or promotion shall on appointment to any post specified in Appendix 'A' remain on probation for a period of two years.

Explanation

(i) Approved officiating service shall be reckoned as period spent on probation. Service spent on deputation to a corresponding or higher post will also count towards the period of probation prescribed above.

(ii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the Appointing Authority may if the vacancy exists and the work and conduct of the member during the period of probation has, in the opinion of Appointing Authority been satisfactory, confirm such member in his appointment on the recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee or if his work of conduct has, in the opinion of the such authority, not been satisfactory the said Authority may after issuing him a show cause notice and after considering his representation if any, submitted in response thereto or by giving him one month's notice discontinue his services if he as appointed by direct recruitment or revert him to his former post if he has lien or in either case may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such order on the expiry of the extended probation period as it could have passed on the expiry of the first probation period. The period of probation of a member may be extended from time to time provided that the total period of probation shall not exceed four years.

(iii) If any person after having reverted to his former post, is subsequently re-appointed to the post from which he reverted, his previous service in the post may be reckoned as period spent on probation, if the appointing authority so specified in the order of re-appointment.

10. Seniority of the members.—(1) Subject to the provision of sub-para (2) below persons appointed in a substantive or officiating capacity to a grade in the service prior to the issue of these rules shall retain the relative seniority already assigned to them or such seniority as may hereafter be assigned to them under the existing orders applicable to their cases and shall enblock be senior to all others in that grade.

Explanation

(a) For the purpose of these rules persons who are confirmed retrospectively with effect from a date earlier than the issue of these rules, and

(b) Persons appointed on probation to permanent posts in the service substantively vacant in a grade prior to the issue of these rules, shall be considered to be permanent officers of the grade.

(2) Subject to the provision of sub-para (3) below permanent officials of each grade shall be ranked senior to persons, who are officiating in that grade.

(3) Direct recruits.—Notwithstanding the provision of sub-para (2) above the relative seniority of all direct recruits shall be determined by the order of merit in which they are selected for such appointment on recommendations of the Departmental Promotion Committee, persons appointed as a result of an earlier selection being senior to those appointed as a result of subsequent selection:

Provided that where persons recruited initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their appointment, seniority shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(4) Promotees.—(i) The relative seniority of the persons promoted to the various grade in the service shall be determined in the order of their selection for such promotion:

Provided that where persons promoted initially on a temporary basis are confirmed subsequently in an order different from the order of merit indicated at the time of their promotion, seniority, shall follow the order of confirmation and not the original order of merit.

(ii) Where promotions to higher grade in the service are made from more than one grade, the eligible persons shall be arranged in separate lists in the order of their relative seniority in their respective grades. Thereafter the Departmental Promotion Committee shall select persons for promotion from each list upto the prescribed quota and arrange all the candidates selected from the different lists in a consolidated order of merit which will determine the seniority of persons on promotion to the higher grade.

(5) Relative seniority of direct recruits and Promotees:—The relative seniority of direct recruits and of promotees shall be determined according to the rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees which shall be based on the quota of vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and promotion respectively in these rules.

(6) Transferees.—The relative seniority of persons appointed by transfer to the Department from the Central Government or a State Government or other Departments of the Government, shall be determined in accordance with the order of their selection for such transfer.

Explanatory memorandum

Sub-rule (4)(i) of Rule No. 10.—Where promotions are made on the basis of selection by a Departmental Promotion Committee, the seniority of such promotees shall be in the order in which they are recommended for such promotion by the Committee.

Where promotions are made on the basis of seniority of persons considered fit for promotion at the same time shall be the same as the relative seniority in the lower grade from which they are promoted. Where, however, a person is considered unfit for promotion and is superseded by a junior person, he shall not, if he is subsequently found suitable and promoted, take seniority in the higher grade over the junior person who had superseded him.

Sub-rule 5 of Rule No. 10.—A roster shall be maintained based on the reservation for direct recruitment and promotion in these rules. Appointment should be made in accordance with this roster and seniority determined accordingly.

Illustration.—Where 75% of the vacancies are reserved for promotion and 25% for direct recruitment, each direct recruit shall be ranked in seniority below three promotees, where the quotas are 50% each, every direct recruit shall be ranked below a promotee. If for any reasons, a direct recruit or a promotee ceases to hold the appointment in the grade, the seniority list shall not be rearranged merely for the purpose of ensuring the preparation referred to above.

All matters not provided for in these rules shall be governed by general rules framed by Himachal Pradesh Government from time to time.

11. Powers to relax rules.—Where the Government is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules cause undue hardship in any particular case, it may by order dispense with or relax the requirements of that rule to such extent and subject to such conditions, as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner.

12. Training and examination etc.—The members shall have to qualify examinations or to undergo training as may be prescribed by the Administrator (Lieutenant Governor) from time to time for any class of posts.

13. Leave and pension etc.—For leave, pension and other (cognate) matters not specifically mentioned in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by the Revised Leave Rules, 1933, and the Pension Rules, promulgated by the Government of India and as amended from time to time.

14. Discipline.—In respect of discipline, punishment and appeals, a member of the service shall be governed by the Central Civil Services Classification Control and Appeal Rules, 1965 and Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964, as amended from time to time.

15. Other conditions of services.—In respect of conditions of service other than those covered by these rules, members of the service shall be governed by the Orders of the Government of India issued from time to time.

16. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

17. Repeal.—The rules promulgated under the Himachal Pradesh Notification No. 22-229/59-Pub., dated the 19th March, 1966, are hereby repealed in relation to the posts for which provision has been made in these rules:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of the said rules or anything already done or any action taken thereunder in respect of the said posts.

P. R. MAHAJAN,
Secretary.
